Fifth Edition of Clapham's Family Sermons.

Just published, in two large and closely printed volumes 8vo. price £1. 4s. boards,

SERMONS, selected and abridged, chiefly from the less known Authors, together with Translations from Bossuet, Massillon, Moussorel, and other celebrated French Preachers, both Protestant and Catholic. Adapted generally to the Epistle, Gospel, or First Lessons, or to the several Seasons of the Year. By the Rev. SAMUEL CLAPHAM, M. A. Rector of Gussage, St. Michael, Dorset, &c. The Fifth Edition.

Printed for Baldwin and Cradock, London.

The earliest inquiry which has for a long time past been made for a new edition of this Work, has induced the Author to use his utmost endeavours to present the public with one which shall be more worthy of their attention, and more interesting than that preceded it. For this purpose he has rejected many of the Sermons that were before given, and substituted others, of which several are from the most eminent French Preachers, but which he has endeavoured more completely to adapt to the use of his own countrymen, whether read in families, or delivered in places of public worship; those from English Divines are chiefly selected from St. John, Dr. Lawson, Bishop Richmond, Skelton, Riddell, Tucker, Dr. Brooke, Elsemore, Bishop Hickman, Reay, Peters, Dr. Scott, Lloyd, Dr. Powell, &c. the whole comprehending 130 Discourses, adapted to the other holidays as well as Sundays.

Sold by W. F. WAKEMAN, 9, D'Olier-street, Dublin, and by all Booksellers in Ireland.

Just published, in 2 vols. 18mo. embellished with eighty-two Engravings, price, neatly bound in cloth 12s. with coloured plates, 18s.

SCRIPTURE NATURAL HISTORY FOR YOUTH. By ESTHER HEWLETT, now COPELEY.

"Quite a treasure for any deserving child, from six years of age to the time of teens. All the animals mentioned in Scripture are not only well described, but a multitude of coloured prints serve to rivet their forms, &c. on the memory. But besides the animal world, we have also the vegetable and mineral, equally well and forcibly, though briefly, impressed on the youthful understanding. In short, these two infantine quarto's are in themselves a valuable library."—Literary Gazette.

"Natural History is in itself one of the most delightful and improving branches of study; but when it is connected with the illustration of the inspired volume, it acquires a deeper interest and importance. The excellent writer of these volumes has therefore rendered a most valuable service to children, and is entitled to the gratitude of parents, for this very seasonable and useful work."—Methodist Magazine.

"We have tested the general accuracy of these volumes, and can speak of them in terms of unhesitating approbation. The illustrative plates, eighty-two in number, are executed with spirit."—Evangelical Magazine.
